

CELEBRATION OF THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PEACE CORPS

International Service: Bringing The World Back Home

Sunday, September 26 / 3:00 p.m. / Free
Lobero Theatre, 33 East Canon Perdido Street, Santa Barbara

This panel discussion will examine the impact of the Peace Corps on the lives of distinguished returned volunteers and will include the following participants:

Sarah Chayes

Former international correspondent for NPR, author of The Punishment of Virtue: Inside Afghanistan After the Taliban, and founder of the Arghand Cooperative in Kandahar (Morocco, 84–86)

Gordon L. Radley

Former president, Lucasfilm Ltd. and senior executive at major motion picture studios and independent production and distribution companies (Malawi, 68–70, Western Samoa, 79)

Thomas Tighe

President and CEO, Direct Relief International, who served as Associate General Counsel of the Peace Corps and Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer of the Peace Corps (Thailand, 86–88)

Congresswoman Lois Capps (CA-23) and Victoria Juarez, President, Santa Barbara Peace Corps Association (Russia, 00-02) will be among those making opening remarks.

Presented by Walter H. Capps Center for the Study of Ethics, Religion, and Public Life at UCSB and cosponsored by the National Peace Corps Association, Santa Barbara Peace Corps Association, Santa Barbara Coalition for Global Dialogue, UCSB Alumni Association, Career Services, Global & International Studies Program, Library, Orfalea Center for Global & International Studies, and Women's Center.

For additional information, please contact Dr. Leonard Wallock, Associate Director at leonard.wallock@cappscenter.ucsb.edu, or by phone at (805) 893-2317.
www.cappscenter.ucsb.edu

